TEMPORARY GRANDSTAND COLLAPSES

Serious Accident Mars the Democratic Notification Ceremonies at Indianapolis

FIVE SERIOUSLY INJURED, FORTY ARE BRUISED

Governor Marshall Formally Notified of Nomination For Vice Presidency—Judge Parker Making Notification Speech When Accident Occurred—Marshall Accuses Republican Party of Fostering Special Privilege, in His Speech.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 20.—Five persons were seriously injured and forty were bruised and cut in the collapse of a grandstand seating 300 in University place this afternoon during the formal notification of Gov. Thomas R. Marshall of his nomination as democratic candidate for vice president. The injured were quickly carried into the hospital, and the notification ceremony proceeded.

Collapsed While Parker Spoke.
The grandstand had been set up on the asphalt pavement directly back of the speaker's platform. Alton B. Parker, representing the republican committee, was in the midst of his address when the stand gave way and sank slowly to the street and men and women in the seats were piled together among the tangled timbers of the structure.

Taggart Quits Crowd.
Several thousand people massed in front of the speaker's platform crowded about the fallen stand and many men helped the injured to scramble to their feet and bore the injured to the clubhouse, where they were cared for by hurriedly summoned physicians. Thomas Taggart, national committee man for Indiana, quitted the crowd by shouting that no one had been seriously injured, and Mr. Parker went on with his speech.

Reception at Governor's Home.
He was followed by Governor Marshall, accepting the nomination. At the close of the governor's address the distinguished guests of the Indiana Democratic club who had come for the ceremony were taken to the governor's home in automobiles for a reception.

Ex-Vice President Fairbanks Present.
Seated in front of the grandstand when it fell was a row of men prominent in national politics, among them former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, Lewis Nelson of New York, United States Senator Gore of Oklahoma, Thomas Taggart, and M. R. Ralston, democratic candidate for governor of Indiana, and W. T. Durbin, republican candidate for governor. The crowd was listening intently to Mr. Parker when the overturned grandstand collapsed and a great number of people were injured. Many people were injured, and many were killed.

Marshall Attacks Republicans.
Governor Marshall, in his formal speech of acceptance, attacked the republican party on grounds of special privilege in the point of making men everywhere socialists in the theory if not in conduct. In this connection he pointed out the fact that a thoughtful man in America, whether millionaire or pauper, to long for a long time to get out of the country in hiding only to find that the majority of the economic system are

Conditions of Servitude.
It is worse than ignorance for the masses to smile at the large body of intelligent Americans who regard themselves as fortunate if the debt and credit accounts of life balance at the end of the year, and to assume that the industrial slavery being produced. Whether voting the ticket or not, men everywhere looking upon the awful injustice of the economic system are
